Are you reading this chapter on shingetsu,

These sites are super killed and they're very convenient. Some people even think that mangaka/mangaka blog/ shingetsu

that's all right

These websites (SFA, translated manga shingetsu, http://www.shingetsu.com) are without giving us any credit. They accumulate manga from hundreds of websites online.
They make thousands of dollars not from their hard work but from a subscription group is hard work like us.

But guess what? They don't respect a subscription group is related and don't profit. That's why they do it.

Shibata Michiko (age 29) breaks up with Mogami, and is once again rescued from despair by Kurosawa. Meanwhile, Kurosawa, who had continued to have feelings for his brother's fiancée, Haruko, wants to use their wedding as a chance to put his feelings in order. Then, on her 30th birthday, Michiko asks Kurosawa for a present—she proposes, saying, 'Please marry me'... 21

cod roe again, the deliciousness was such a

from the bottom of my heart for this world that has cod and pollack roe

Michiko couldn't help suspecting that Mogami was a scammer. They clear up the misunderstanding, but they decide to break up. Michiko falls into a self-loathing depression, but once again it's Kurosawa who cheers her up. Michiko and Kurosawa go to see a movie together, and they happen to run into his older brother, Ho-jwe, and his fiancée, Haruko. Kurosawa, who had still harbored feelings for Haruko, gets provoked by Ho-jwe, and they have a fight and leave. Michiko is angry about Ho-jwe's attitude, so she eggs Kurosawa on, saying, "Crash the wedding and steal Haruko." In the end, Kurosawa does attend the wedding, tells Haruko his feelings, and is able to put his feelings in order by giving his blessing for their marriage. Then Michiko has her 30th birthday (or Christmas day), and gives Kurosawa a request for a birthday present: "Please marry me" ...?!

□Manners during a marriage interview

• Regarding Attire

Take care with cleanliness, a and appropriate to time, place, and occasion.

•During the interview

- Whether you like the other person or not, do not
- It's important to smile, and express your thanks.
- Speak clearly and directly.

From Akira-ne-tan

Akira

I wonder if it

TL NOTE: Don't bother asking why they play in parks. "To do it" here is the same word for "to do it" at first, blunder. Don't follow with it like an "oh" something.

A hand is shown reaching out towards a wireframe cube. The word 'Wham' is written in a large, bold, stylized font, overlapping the hand and the cube.
